

GROUP 1

Birth traditions in Poland

Baptism

The celebration lasts the whole day. First, you have the baptism at the church, usually followed by a dinner at restaurant with the whole family.

The child gets holy water poured on their head and is always dressed in white no matter the gender. The godfather and godmother also bring a candle for the ceremony.

Gifts

When people see the baby for the first time, they usually bring presents, such as decorations, clothing or toys.